

OHNA Board Meeting
Monday, October 18th, 2010
Metropolitan Community Church - 1432 Highland Avenue
6:00 p.m.

Board Attendance: Josh Behr, Robin Blackshear, Chuck Burke, Rick Goldberg, Andi Hannan, Forrest Kuhn, Eva Markham, Jackie Leslie, Bill Schneider

Reports:

- 1) President – no report.
- 2) Secretary - no report
- 3) Treasurer – Board voted unanimously to donate $2000 to Gilda’s Club from the proceed of the “Slice Of The Highlands” event. Festival profits were $3,935.27.
- 4) Terra Long from Tom Owen’s office reported that a new Alley Prototype will be installed between Highland, Morton, and East of Edward to the alley behind Baxter Ave. The prototype is intended to study ways to retain rainwater for local absorption rather than allow water to run off and burden the sewage treatment systems during heavy rains.
- 5) Officer Jeff Artman reminds people not to leave items visible in their cars and to make sure cars are locked.
- 6) Darrin Riddle had nothing to add to Artman’s comments.

Ongoing Items:

- 7) OH Banners – Rick Goldberg to start collecting pledges from banner donors.
- 8) Wayside / Mercy Academy – please see website for updates - www.highlandersforresponsiblegrowth.com

New Business:

- 9) Terra long will investigate whether the electrical meter and panels on Baxter Avenue can be taken out of the OHNA name.

- 10) The meeting adjourned at 6:59 PM

OHNA General Meeting
Monday, October 18th, 2010
Metropolitan Community Church - 1432 Highland Avenue
7:00 p.m.

- 1) Denny from The Monkey Wrench addressed the OHNA Board regarding the Boards opposition to the Monkey Wrench request for a 4AM liquor License. A large group of friends and customers of the Monkey Wrench came to attend the meeting and voice their support for the Monkey Wrench license request. The meeting was civil. Chuck Burke responded that the OHNA opposition to the 4AM license is based on neighborhood concerns about parking, litter, noise, and similar problems associated with bar business.

The meeting adjourned at approximately 7:30 PM